BRIDES Northern California: Napa Valley's Best Hotels for a Bachelorette Weekend

By Katie Hammel

A bachelorette weekend in Napa Valley should have three things: good food, good wine, and a great hotel. Beyond that, whether you want to spend your time exploring the wineries of the valley, relaxing by the pool, working up a sweat in the gym, or being pampered in the spa, it's all up to you. These Napa Valley hotels are perfect for any bachelorette party, no matter what your plans.

Westin Verasa Napa

Located in the heart of downtown Napa, a short stroll from Oxbow Market and dozens of tasting rooms, the Westin Verasa Napa is one of the Valley's larger hotels and offers the best of both worlds: a hotel with a ton of amenities and a central location, making it easy to explore the local area. At the hotel, there is an onsite pool and Jacuzzi (complete with cabanas and a seasonal pool bar), a small fitness room, spa, and two dining options: the BANK bar and restaurant and the Michelin-starred La Toque restaurant. The rooms are perfect for bachelorette groups, containing small kitchenettes with mini-fridges, electric two-burner cook tops, microwaves, sinks, and dishwashers. Suites have living areas with sofa-beds; the Two Bedroom King Suites can sleep up to six people and come with a full kitchen.
