

10 Best Bay Area Restaurants for NYE, And a $75,000 Package

By Kelly E. Carter

There's nothing like ending the year with a fantastic feast. We've got a mind-blowing, $75,000 New Year's Eve package from The St. Regis San Francisco, Shreve & Co and Waterbar that will redefine the way you sing "Auld Lang Syne." Or, if you prefer to say goodbye to 2014 and ring in 2015 in a more traditional style, here are nine more of the best Bay Area restaurants for New Year's Eve. First, the granddaddy of 'em all:

If you're headed to Napa for New Year's Eve, you'll want to make reservations for the over-the-top Red Tie Affair, which includes a decadent five-course dinner at Chef Ken Frank's Michelin-starred La Toque restaurant, inside the Westin Verasa, and a Red Tie Dance Party held in the lobby at BANK Café and Bar. The New Year's Eve dinner in La Toque begins with a champagne reception and passed hors d'oeuvres on the covered terrace, followed by an indulgent five-course dinner. For this very special night, the La Toque kitchen presents the restaurant's most elaborate menu of the year. Not to be outdone, the sommeliers will choose exceptional wines from the award-winning cellar to offer as wine pairings for the evening. Guests dining at La Toque will have full access to the Red Tie Party at BANK Café & Bar to enjoy the music and dancing. And yes, the finest red attire is suggested.
